

Sahony Concepcion
2019 Clarence Tabor Memorial Scholarship Award

Sahony Concepcion is an architecture student from Rochelle Park, New Jersey who will be entering her fifth year of architecture school at the New Jersey Institute of Technology this fall. Sahony has interned at three different architectural firms in New Jersey since receiving her Associate Degree from Bergen Community College and transferring to NJIT. Sahony was selected for the Clarence Tabor Memorial Scholarship Award based on the strength of her submitted work. The Clarence Tabor Memorial Scholarship Award is given to undergraduate students entering their fifth and final year or to graduate students based on scholastic excellence, attitude toward the profession and probable success as an architect.

The Architects League Scholarship Awards are a joint program with the AIA Component Scholarship Grant and are made possible with assistance from our 2019 Platinum Sponsor Pella Windows & Doors and through proceeds from our annual Golf Classic, which will be celebrating its 20th anniversary this July.

Selected images from Sahony's submitted work samples:

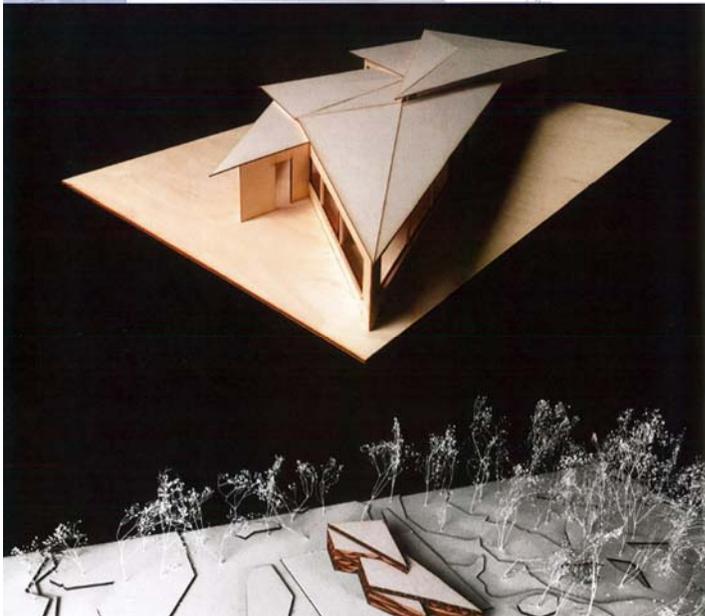

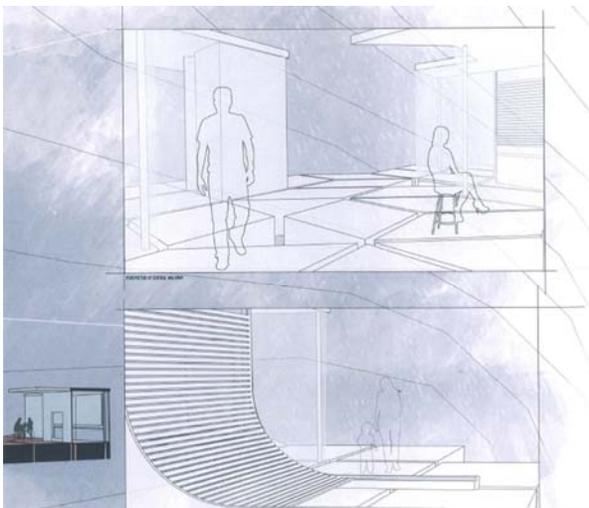

Hunter Keene
2019 Albert O. Halse Memorial Award

Hunter Keene is an architecture student from Weehawken, New Jersey who will be starting his third year of architecture school at Penn State this fall. Hunter has completed summer internships with a millworker and architecture firm, as well as spending time working as a theatrical stagehand. Hunter was selected for the Albert O. Halse Memorial Award based on the strength of his submitted work. The Albert O. Halse Memorial Award recognizes undergraduate students for excellence in architectural delineation and/or architectural models and Hunter's submission was notably impressive and well presented.

The Architects League Scholarship Awards are a joint program with the AIA Component Scholarship Grant and are made possible with assistance from our 2019 Platinum Sponsor Pella Windows & Doors and through proceeds from our annual Golf Classic, which will be celebrating it's 20th anniversary this July.

Selected images from Hunter's submitted work samples:

Jake Gawrych
2019 ALNNJ Scholarship for High School Students

Jake Gawrych is a high school senior from Wayne, New Jersey who will be graduating from Wayne Hills High School in Spring 2019. This fall, Jake will be attending the University of Miami where he will be pursuing a Bachelor of Architecture degree. Jake is a member of the National Honor Society and the National Society for High School Scholars, and has done volunteer work for the Special Olympics. Jake's application was selected from a strong group of high school student submissions based on the overall depth and quality of his work, which displays a level of sophistication that was especially impressive for a high school student.

The Architects League Scholarship Awards are a joint program with the AIA Component Scholarship Grant and are made possible with assistance from our 2019 Platinum Sponsor Pella Windows & Doors and through proceeds from our annual Golf Classic, which will be celebrating it's 20th anniversary this July.

Selected images from Jake's submitted work samples:

